GRAND JUROR SPENCER BOUND OVER

Montville Officer Held for Trial Before Superior Court-On H. H. Pettis.

Two hundred people who packed the town hall at Montville on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 in expectation of hearing the evidence produced against Grand Juror Fred Spencer whom Joe Gallpeau had accused of firing a revolver at him were disappointed when the hearing before the justice resulted only in the filing of a demurrer, which was overruled by Justice of the Peace Henry H. Pettis of this city. Justice Pettis found probable cause and bound the accused over on trial before the next session of the superior court. Bonds were placed at $300 which were secured by Grand Juror Spencer. He was bound over on the charge of assault.

Clayton B. Smith of New London was attorney for the grand juror, but in Mr. Smith's absence Justice Smiddy entered the demurrer. Attorney Edward T. Burke appeared for the prosecution.

Grand Juror Spencer was arrested the peace. Frobable cause was found the peace.

A CHRISTIAN HOME AND CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Are Two of the Allies That Win, Says Rev. Dr. Slocum.

An attractive feature of the evening service at the Central Baptist church on Sunday were the cornet solos Beautiful Home in Paradise and The Holy City, rendered in creditable manner by Master Harry Allen, 6 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Allen, of Occum. In spite of the stormy weather Occum. In spite of the stormy weather there was a good sized congregation and a very helpful and interesting sermon was delivered by Rev. Joel B. Slocum, D. D., the pastor, in his series upon Allies That Win.

In his sermon Dr. Slocum brought with the series of the se out in an emphatic manner the value of a Christian home and a Christian education. His text was taken from II Timothy, first chapter, fifth verse, "The home," said Dr. Slocum, "is the essential unit of society." Continuing, he said: The home is the moral foundation of society, and the stability of the foundation will depend upon the dation of society, and the stability of the foundation will depend upon the character of the home. Therefore there is one ideal for the home, that is it should be a Christian home. The ideal of this fundamental unit is that it should be Christian and thoroughly Christian. Jesus Christ has contrib-Christian. Jesus Christ has contrib-uted more towards the Christian home in all these centuries than any other one individual. Jesus was a normal boy, normal in that he exercised and played. In his boyhood he presented a normality that appeals not only to the boys, but to the grown-ups as well. After reviewing the more important After reviewing the more important incidents in the life of Jesus in Nazareth, Dr. Slocum went on to contrast in which it is alleged that Topas struck him with a club on the head inflicting a laceration which necessitated three stitches to close.

The trouble arose over the postman delivering wrong newspapers to both men. The postman, who is new on the lob there, left the Topas newspaper at Mack's house and Mack's newspaper at the Topas house. Both men are Poles but the Sewspapers are in different dialects so that Mack was unable to read Topas's paper and Topas was unable to read Mack's.

Mack took the paper which was delivered to him and went to Topas's house to give it to its rightful owner and to get his own paper. He alleges that a woman came to the door when he reached Topas's house and she asked him to wait a minute, as Topas wanted to see him. He stepped inside the vestibule, he claims, and was hit on the head with a stick wielded by Topas. He was taken unawhere and received an injury which confined him to his home for several days.

WILL BEAR ON MANY. Numerous Lines of Business.

Nearly everybody who does business, would do well to seek information concerning the federal tax to be imposed under the act to increase the internal revenue. Most of the bankers in the city know about the tax of $1 they, or their banks, must pay on each $1,000 of capital used or employed, but retail cigar dealers may not know that they are liable under the law for a tax of $4.30 per annum.

Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue Farrell at New London has received an invoice of literature bearing on the new tax. It is interesting to note that about every form of business is provided for under the new tax law and its proprietor must pay from his profits into the coffers of the government.

For instance, the owners of pool tables which are used in trade are liable to the U. S. tax of $5 per year for a star of the transformation of woman.

Is Prisoner in British Hands

Mrs. John Fick of Groton is trying to sell her furniture in order that she may get back to Germany. Her husband is a prisoner of war of the British on the Isle of Man. Her father and brothers are at the front in the German army. She has two little children, three and five years of age, and wants to get back where her friends are.

Fick, a German subject, answered the call of the Fatherland at the beginning of the war. The steamship on which he sailed was overhauled by British ships of war and the male passengers were made with the first same will show lots of speed and be one that the village will be proud of.
